DETAILED ACTION

Remarks

1. In response to communications filed on February 28, 2006, no claims are cancelled; claims 1, 16, 21, and 23 have been amended, and no new claims have been added. Therefore, claims 1-24 are still presently pending in the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 24 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 24, recites the limitation "extra piece of information", which renders the claim vague and indefinite, because it is unclear as to what "extra piece of information" is or signifies in the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-20, 22 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Art Unit: 2164

5. Claims 1, 9, 16 and 24 are not limited to tangible embodiments. In view of Applicant's disclosure, specification page 15, lines 14-17, the medium is not limited to tangible embodiments, instead being defined as including intangible embodiments (e.g., fluid transmission; signals). As such, the claim is not limited to statutory subject matter and is therefore non-statutory. An appropriate correction is required.

Claim 22 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because it discloses a computer readable medium as "a modulated electrical signal, a modulated optical signal". As such, the claim is not limited to statutory subject matter and is therefore non-statutory. An appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 21 and 23 are allowed.
